CHIEF JUDGE HAYNES

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO RESPOND
TO DEFENDANT'S MOTION TO SEVER DEFENDANT
AND FOR A SPEEDY TRIAL

ORDER
This motion is GRANTED will be 10-17-12

COMES NOW the United States of America, by and through the undersigned Assistant United States Attorney, and respectfully requests an extension of one week to respond to the defendant's motion to suppress and motion to discover identity of informant. (D.E. 87).

In support of this motion, the government submits that the defendant has raised several legal issues. The government is in the process of reviewing the motion but needs additional time to research the issues raised and prepare an appropriate response. Therefore, the government respectfully requests an extension of one week to October 23, 2012, to respond to this motion.

Respectfully submitted,

JERRY E. MARTIN
United States Attorney for the Middle District of Tennessee
